

Lippia Citriodora

This is a half hardy, upright growing perennial with tiny white-lilac flowers. Its lance shaped, pale green leaves have a strong lemon scent. The plant grows up to 300cm (120") high and spreads to 300cm (120") wide. It is native to South America.

Point of Sale:

Lippia citriodora is a great topiary plant with a nice fragrance. It is very rich in aromatic oil. The leaves taste great in a cup of tea.
